

Physical Therapist Assistant, AAS

The Physical Therapist Assistant associate degree program prepares graduates to work directly with patients to provide rehabilitation under the direction and supervision of physical therapists.

Graduates can work in outpatient clinics, skilled nursing facilities, hospitals, and more.

Physical Therapist Assistant, AAS | A45640

- Credits required for a degree: 69
- Demonstrate clinical problem-solving
- Perform physical therapy data collection and interventions
- Produce quality documentation

Admission Requirements

- GTCC general admission
- Completion of general education prerequisite courses
- Completion of program information session
- Complete the ATI TEAS with a minimum score of 66

Program Costs*

- In-state tuition and fees: $5,700
- Out-of-state tuition and fees: $21,000
- Books and supplies: $1,800

*The amounts shown above are an estimate and can vary from program to program.

CAPTE
Commission on Accreditation
in Physical Therapy Education

GTCC's Physical Therapist Assistant program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation in Physical Therapy Education (CAPTE).

Interested? Have questions?
Contact Joey Jeffers at jnjeffers@gtcc.edu or visit gtcc.edu/limitedentry.